Design is Dreaming its own Dreams

“TO MEASURE THE LIFE AS IT IS BY A LIFE AS IT SHOULD BE (THAT IS, A LIFE IMAGINED TO BE DIFFERENT FROM THE LIFE KNOWN, AND PARTICULARLY A LIFE THAT IS BETTER AND WOULD BE PREFERABLE TO THE LIFE KNOWN) IS A DEFINING, CONSTITUTIVE FEATURE OF HUMANITY”

—Zygmunt Bauman quoted in “Speculative Everything”

Pick three events in history & explore what might have happened subsequently if they had a different outcome. Possible scenarios could be utopian or dystopian (or even a combination of the two). Be prepared to discuss your notes in class. At least one of the events should be something lesser known that your peers may not know anything about.

PART 01:
(PARTIAL SCHEDULE)

10/24)

Review finished work from project one, discuss alternative scenario prompt notes

HOMEWORK: Choose one of your events to pursue—write a much more detailed outline for next class (10/26).
